“ How do you say goodbye to my best friend.. Even though Miles, life and Responsibilities separated us and we lost touch we found each other again.. I Cherish every special moment we had together.. Watching Our Children grow and every single year or belly laugh.. And there were many of those!! 😊.. We understood each other and respected each other and sometimes agreed to disagree but no one could have come between our friendship...My dear friend we always had plans to meet up one day but do to circumstances that never happened.. But we did say that if not on this earth we will see each other in heaven.. I believe that is exactly what is going to happen.. Girl I know you already got your wings and are flying high and free with no pain, or sorrow but pure happiness... How can I tell you how much I love you and will miss you terribly..Until that time comes when you and I both take over heaven with our laughter and antics I will just hold on to our wonderful memories.. Love you Sis, Friend, and Running Buddy...RIP Dear one and God Speed til we meet again ..
