

Dionne Marie Reynolds

October 20, 1950 - August 24, 2019

Dionne Marie (Stornant) Reynolds born October 20, 1950, left on her heavenly journey on August 24. A loving and caring woman, she spent her life dedicated to her faith and her family. As a mother, her enduring love will continue to guide her son David and his sweet wife Suzanne forever. Dionne never lost hope in her short but fierce battle against cancer. Her unwavering faith in God filled her life with miracles. She studied her bible daily and lived knowing the Lord would provide. She loved spending her time in search of the perfect pink shells and sand dollars on the beaches of Marco Island. She was happiest with a cup of coffee in a real cup and dancing and singing like no one was watching. She believed that life is uncertain you should eat dessert first, laughter is the best medicine, and vinegar cleans it all. She was welcomed in Heaven by her parents Thomas Sr. and Anna Stornant, her brother David, nephew Alonso and brother-in-law Brett. Surviving are her siblings Claudia (Henry) Lotoszinski, Thomas Jr. (Maryellen) Stornant, Stefeni (Alonso) Collar, Steve (Barb) Stornant, Paul Stornant, Mary Sue (Russ) Lundberg, Michael (Amy) Stornant, Amy Jo Robinson and many nieces and nephews. Memorial donations may be sent in Dionne's name to Faith Hospice, 2100 Raybrook St. SE, Grand Rapids, MI. 49546.

“ I always enjoyed seeing and visiting with Dionne when she was visiting her parents and she would bring them to Panera’s on Thursdays to our coffee group. She was always so sweet and kind, she surely will be missed.

My love and prayers to all,

“ Dionne would welcome me to her home many years ago always for a fresh cup of coffee and a peaceful chat about life. Her soul was always gentle and her wisdom was superior. Her devotion to her son was uncanny and everlasting. She loved her entire family more than words can express. I am very sad to hear of her loss and I will forever remember her beauty inside and out! May God bless the entire family and may you all feel her presence upon your shoulders as a guiding angel. XOXO Trish O'Brien Riley
