“ It was Lisa's 21st birthday. We were at my dads and you helped me make alcohol cupcakes with everclear for her. They were AWFUL. But you spent the night with us just porch living. Talking about the universe. And how you thought quantum mechanics seemed to make more sense than the string theory. You always did have that fire for knowledge. I'm really grateful that I remember that night so well. We shared so much with one another and it made me realize that you were always gonna be my little seestor. I went to bed that night so thankful for you and Lisa and Nikki. You guys mean/t so much to me. And that will never change.

“ I have so many memories with you but one of my favorites is when we were laying in my backyard talking about the universe and what life would be like for us in 5, 10, 20 years. It seemed like such a small memory but it's been the one that's been so prominent in my brain since finding out you left us. You had so much spirit and heart and light. I'm sorry we won't get to see what life will be like in 20 years together. Love you always and forever Rika
