“ You will be so missed Aunt Lorraine. I have so many memories but the one I will hold closest to my heart is when you and my mom hugged each other and smiled and joked around when she was in the process of passing. Even playing around shoving each other. Then your heart to heart with her telling her that you thought you would go first and that it should be you not her that she was strong like an ox and you have been so sick. Mom told you dont say that yours and all her siblings lives were just as important as the next rather you were sick or not. Then mom said dont even think about it you have kids and grandkids and great grandkids live for them like she did for hers until she couldnt hang on anymore. She told you she was ready to be with her husband , children her parents and brother. Now she is with you her younger sister playing cards. Give mom a hug. To my cousins my heart is crushed for you. There is nothing I can do to lessen the pain except to offer you my support. I'm here for you.

“ I am going to miss my aunt. They way she was loving always being there for someone even if she was up to it, taking pics at parties, birthdays and any other event that may have been going on and wanting to play card games all the time. Love you Aunt Lorraine.
