

Richard A. Iacovoni

June 17, 1964 - August 30, 2019

The man. The myth. The legend. Richard A. Iacovoni, age 55, died unexpectedly August 30th, 2019. Rick was preceded in death by his father James Iacovoni, grandparents Alfredo and MaryBelle "Smiles" (Miliszewski) Iacovoni, Alfred and Helen Batts; his father in law: Jake Ciccone. He will be deeply missed by his wife of 32 years, Lisa Iacovoni (Ciccone); his children: Marissa (Ken) Iacovoni-Reynolds, Tony (Kelsey) Iacovoni; his grandchildren: Hendrix Reynolds, Phoenix Reynolds; his mother: Bettye Iacovoni; sister Tina (James) Miedzelic and brother Jim Iacovoni; his mother in law: Angela Ciccone. Rick left a tremendous impact on his large extended family and brothers in law, and sisters in law along with many nieces and nephews who loved and cherished him. Rick was passionate about his company Creative Machining Inc. where his hard work and dedication never went unnoticed. He loved all wildlife and spending time in the outdoors hunting and fishing with his family. He spent his days enjoying his beautiful wife, kids, grandchildren, and Michigan football. He also enjoyed an occasional Jack and Ginger shared with good friends, great conversation, and laughs. Many of those laughs were shared with his special friends Jim and Amy Morrissey. Known as Mr. Life of the Party, he took fashion cues from no one, but held stock in Carhart, University Of Michigan attire, and tractor supply. A Mass honoring Rick's life will be held at Holy Spirit Parish at 11:00 am on Friday, September 6th 2019 in Grand Rapids, Michigan. His family will be gathering after the service for a celebration of his life at the Arsulowicz Guest House for a luncheon. In lieu of flowers, please consider a gift to the American Heart Association and/or Michigan Out Of Doors.

“ Lisa, Marissa and Tony;
We are so sorry about Ricks's sudden passing on to be with our Lord. He was one of the most fun people we have ever met and have many positive memories. He was a great husband, father, and friend. He will be missed for sure. Love and Gods Blessings. Beads and Nancy, Patrick and Carissa, Andrew, Jennifer and Dan
